7 CORE VALUES:

teamwork
responsibility service
perseverance
integrity respect enthusiasm

DEAR FRIENDS

All of us at InnerCity Tennis (ICT) are driven to help youth unleash their full potential on and off the tennis court. We use tennis and our unique curricula to engage kids and help improve their health, enhance their education, develop their character, and build a sense of community with others. Every day, our mission motivates our staff, board, and volunteers. We are so grateful to our generous donors and supportive community for making 2015 one of the best years ever at InnerCity Tennis.

Following our momentum-building in 2014, InnerCity Tennis made significant advancements in 2015:

- Over 4,000 Kids Served. ICT delivered our innovative youth programming in 23 Minneapolis Parks, in 9 Minneapolis schools and at ICT's tennis center in South Minneapolis. Our Outreach team and volunteers served a racially and ethnically diverse group of kids, representing some of Minneapolis' most under-resourced youth.
- USTA's Community Tennis Association of the Year Award. ICT received this award in recognition of our youth programming, our commitment to enhancing our community through tennis, and the great work of our staff and volunteers. See page 15 for a photo of Executive Director, John Wheaton and Education & Outreach Program Director, Song Thao receiving this award from USTA President, Katrina Adams and USTA Foundation Chairman, James Blake.
- USTA's Outstanding Facility Award. ICT was recognized as one of the outstanding public facilities in the United States. Our Raise the Roof, Close the Gap campaign's second phase has been completed, including the grand opening of our web-enabled Best Buy 21st Century classroom.
- 2015 Outstanding Community Partner Award from Head Start. Head Start has been a long-time outreach partner of ICT. Together with other not-for-profit youth organizations like Head Start, we are able to fully leverage our resources to benefit Twin Cities youth.
- New Leadership. We promoted John Wheaton to Executive Director, hired Ann Wordelman as Director of Advancement, and promoted Song Thao to Education & Outreach Program Director. The Board is excited about John's vision and the opportunity to capitalize on his 30+ years of experience in tennis and youth education.

"We use tennis and our unique curricula to engage kids and help improve their health, enhance their education, develop their character, and build a sense of community with others."

InnerCity Tennis Foundation will continue to develop and deliver programming to under-served youth to improve their health, enhance their education, and build their character, by instilling our 7 core values. Thank you for joining us in delivering our mission and for supporting our ongoing efforts to create access and opportunities for the youth we serve.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Oberrender
Board Chair

FIRST CLASS FACILITY FOR KIDS

RAISE THE ROOF, CLOSE THE GAP CAMPAIGN

GOAL
$2.0 MILLION

12/31/15
$1.4 MILLION

Help us reach our goal!

We think our kids deserve to play and learn in a first class facility. So do our customers who use the Tennis Center and whose court fees help support InnerCity Tennis Outreach programs.

In 2015, InnerCity Tennis completed the second phase of renovations to the Reed Sweatt Family Tennis Center, including the grand opening of our Best Buy 21st Century Classroom along with improvements to the common areas of the Tennis Center. This work complemented our initial phase, which included replacement of both domes and installation of air conditioning to expand our programming capabilities in the summer. These upgrades have accomplished our goal of transforming our dated tennis facility into a modern, attractive, welcoming hub that is equipped to build up the youth and families of the 21st Century.

Through 2015, our Raise the Roof, Close the Gap campaign has raised $1.4 million toward our goal of $2.0 million. Now that we've "raised the roof" at the tennis center, our attention is focused on "closing the gap" for Minneapolis youth. Your support will provide the critical funding needed for expanded programming in the areas of our city that need it most. Our proven programs and curricula are ready to grow along with the youth of our city. Thank you for making "more" possible. We look forward to reporting on our continued advancement.
